WILLIMANTIC

Norwich Bulletin, Willimantic Office, 23 Church St. Telephone 105.

What is Going On Tonight:

Obwobetuck Lodge No. 15, I. O. O. F., meets at 807 Main street.

Ladies' Catholic Benevolent Association, meets in St. Joseph's hall.

At the sessions of the Windham county superior court, held Wednesday in this city, the first case tried was that of Robert Monty, 19, and Charles Dean, 18, the two boys who had been arrested following their entry into the store of Theron S. Clapp, at Elliott, December 22. They received a sentence of six months in jail from Judge John P. Kellogg. Execution of judgment was suspended until the October session of the court. The two boys were arrested by Officer C. V. Enander of this city soon after the October session of the court. They admitted breaking into the store and stealing a pair of shoes, sweaters, stockings, gloves and a quantity of canned goods and tobacco. The value of the stolen goods amounted to about $55. The boys told the court that they had started from their homes in Kenton, last week Thursday. They had entered a car in Kenton, and after traveling through Cincinnati, Cleveland, and to Albany, N. Y., they had run out of funds. From Albany they had come to New York, where they thought they would carry them to New York, but which, however, landed them in Providence, R. I. They testified they had had nothing to eat before breaking into the store. After telling of working in the mines in Kentucky they expressed willingness to work at Brooklyn jail, and they were placed in charge of Jailer Albert S. Fields for the time of their probation.

The second case tried was that of Harold Crea, 24, charged with assault and attempted rape on the person of Miss Alice Maynard of the town of Thompson, Dec. 7. At the session of court last week Thursday Crea had entered a plea of not guilty to the charges, but Wednesday he was allowed to change his plea to guilty. Attorney Torrey who represented the accused, stated that Crea had taken several glasses of cider prior to his attack on the girl, and evidently did not know what he was doing. Crea, who comes from a good family, had never been arrested before. He was sentenced to not less than one and not more than three years in state prison.

Walter Timmins of Willimantic, charged with theft of a quantity of nickel watches and six dozen spoons valued at $15, from the New York New Haven and Hartford Railroad, February 20, entered a plea of guilty. According to the story told to the court there were two others implicated in the theft, but they had been enlisted in the service. A fine of $50 and costs was imposed by Judge Kellogg and Timmins was placed in the charge of Probation Officer C. Lyman until the October term of the court.

But the jurors were called shortly before the noon recess of the court, taken at 12:30 o'clock, 22 out of the 24 summoned were present. The absentees were Frank E. Miller of Canton, who is said to be out of the state, and Wendal Worden of Hampton.

Traffic over the Willimantic-Norwich trolley line was delayed for two hours Wednesday, one of the trolleys having split a switch at Sharp's Crossing. The trolley, which was sent up from Norwich and after the car had been placed back on the iron rails, the regular schedule was resumed.

State Police Officer Howard Francis in this city Wednesday attending the session of the Windham county superior court.

Howard William Daniels, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Daniels of South Coventry, and Elsie Theodora Johnson, daughter of Mrs. Carl Johnson of 28 Prospect street, Hartford, were married Wednesday afternoon at the home of the bride, Rev. C. Harley Smith performing the double ring ceremony. The couple entered the parlor unattended as the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin was played by Miss Mildred Bulger and took their place under an arch of laurel and white roses. The bride wore a navy blue, beaded georgette gown with hat to match and carried a bouquet of white roses. The bride was graduated from Windham High in the class of 1918 and has been a stenographer in the order department of the American Thread Company. The groom who attended high school in this city, is in the employ of a local clothing company. Mr. and Mrs. Daniels left during the afternoon on their honeymoon trip. The bride received many gifts. Only relatives and intimate friends from Chicopee, Mass., Hartford, South Coventry and Willimantic attended the wedding.

Saturday will be Tag day and Willimantic residents will be stopped on

COUGHED NIGHT AND DAY.

John Vognue, Elberton, Ga., writes: "Last fall, when my neighbors were down with influenza, I took a severe cold and before I was aware of it, my condition was down sick in bed. I coughed night and day and my throat was raw and sore. I got a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound and took eight or ten doses in two hours. My condition began to improve and in a few days I was as well as ever. In my opinion Foley's is the best cough medicine made." Lee & Osgood Co.

Mrs. Anna Nekola, 43, wife of Austin Nekola of Beach Pond, died at the Tuberculosis Sanatorium Sunday. Mrs. Nekola was born in Finland.

Asa Brewster Fanning, chapter, D. A. R., held its meeting Wednesday afternoon at the home of the regent, Miss Ida L. Foster. The hostesses were Miss Foster and Mrs. J. H. Tracy. Mrs. R. F. Cheney was ap pointed a committee to receive Revolutionary relics to be sent to the D. A. R. National Museum, in Washington, D. C. Such relics may be donated by persons not members of the D. A. R., and the articles will be marked with the donor's name, which will be also published in the magazine of the order. Delegates to the national congress were appointed: Miss Foster, the regent; Mrs. J. H. Tracy, vice regent. As alternates are appointed by virtue of their officers, according to a new law ten alternates shall be appointed and they are: Mrs. W. R. Burdick, Miss Alice Brown, Mrs. G. H. Jennings, Mrs. A. F. Cheney, Mrs. F. C. Whiting, Mrs. Henry Olson, Mrs. B. C. Bliss, Mrs. J. G. Ladd, Mrs. B. D. Brown and Mrs. J. E. Phillips. The paper of the afternoon was on Americanization and was read by Mrs. A. M. Entwistle. The hostesses served refreshments to a very good number of members in spite of the boisterous weather.

tion of the court was that of Camilla Sherrill, charged with assault with intent to kill Emil Shakkal, Sept. 24. Sherrill, through an interpreter, entered a plea of guilty to the charge. The assault with which Sherrill was charged took place at North Grosvenordale where Sherrill waited for Shakkal and as the latter stepped out a car not more than five feet away, Sherrill fired five shots at him with a .22 caliber revolver he had been carrying. Four of the bullets took effect, entering Shakkal's head just back of the left ear, two lodged in his jaw, another puncturing a lung, and another passing completely through his body, making it necessary for the removal of about three inches of his intestines. Shakkal was rushed to the Day Kimball hospital in Putnam and it was thought that he would die. He showed remarkable recuperative powers, however, and is now entirely healed and is only a trifle weak from his wounds.

Sherrill died after the shots and was not captured until after a 24-hour search by the Putnam officers and members of the state police, when he was nearly to the Massachusetts line. When captured he had two revolvers, one a U. S. 32 and the other a Colt automatic of the same calibre. He gave up without a struggle when the officers found him.

In the testimony little could be found to show why the accused wished to take the life of Shakkal but some previous argument was thought to have been the cause. Shakkal, who stated that he was going to join his wife who lived in Maine, was held by the state police until after the trial.

State's Attorney Charles E. Sears of Putnam, charged the accused with not less than one year and not more than four years in state prison.

Judge Kellogg sentenced the accused as recommended by the state, which were scheduled to come up before the present session of the court were continued on bonds and at 2:30 Judge Kellogg ordered the court adjourned sine die.

County Detective William E. Jackson had gotten confessions from the persons connected with the case and the brevity of the session of the court was due to the completeness of many of the cases.

According to the vital statistics recorded at the office of Town Clerk Frank P. Fenton there were but four marriages in the town of Windham during December, as follows:

26—Abram R. Meyers, 32, and Myra T. Leary, 30, by Justice of the Peace J. J. Kelley.

27—Julius Garocari, 23, and Angelina Carocari, 21, by Justice of the Peace J. J. Danaher.

28—Charles Palmer, 64, and Viola B. Cook, 30, by Justice of the Peace Thomas J. Kelley.
